Hello Parents and Carers

So the weather hasn't been the greatest this week but it hasn't stopped Early Years enjoying themselves in their new puddle suits

Early Years dressed up today as part of their 'Who I want to be when I'm older' topic. We have a couple of Police Officers, nurses, ballerinas, a builder, Isabella who wants to be a teacher and Olivia who would like to be a vet.

Next Friday afternoon Early Years will be having their Teddy Bears picnic. Juice and biscuits will be provided but please can children bring in their Teddy.

Next Friday we are hoping to raise lots of money for the Little Princess Trust by having a non-uniform day. Leah in Year 1 is having her hair cut off for the Trust. Further details on page 3

Thank you for the donations—we have raised £45 from this week's recycling

Congratulations to our Star Learners

6

Noah is Star Learner for his excellent Maths work and always showing a great work ethic.

5

Tamia is Star Learner for settling back into school and being really focused on all her work.

Ellie is this week's star learner for making positive choices and displaying very good behaviour for learning. She has impressed us when she worked with her partner having to take turns and communicate ideas. Keep up your fantastic attitude to learning, Ellie!

3

Well done to Archie who is Star Learner for settling in really well and for being an excellent role model.

2

Our Star Learner this week is Hayden for his super planning for his story using similes and expanded noun phrases.

Olivia is our star learner for amazing sentence writing remembering full stops and capital letters.

1

Isabella is star learner for her fantastic independent writing when writing a non fiction report and a recount of the story we have been reading how to wash a woolly mammoth.

EYFS

Ryan has achieved a writing award for trying really hard with his writing this week. Well done Ryan

Non-Uniform Day

Friday 28th May

In aid of

Leah Conboy, Year 1 who is having her long hair cut off for The Little Princess Trust.

The Little Princess Trust provides free real hair wigs to children who have lost their own hair through cancer treatment or other conditions.

Please bring in a donation to go towards Leah's target of £550 which is the cost of one wig.

Leah has a go fund me page where you can also donate
