

Featherstone Wood Newsletter

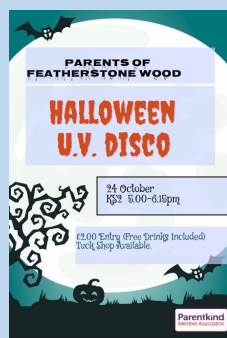

Friday 11th October 2019

Dear Parent and Carers,

Thank you to everyone who turned up for our Welly Walk in the drizzle this afternoon. Good fun was had by all. We also have a few more events coming up as we move towards Half Term.

We have books from The Book People for sale in the Library and Parents Evening next Tuesday 15th October. Teachers will have given you your time slot. Books will also be for sale that evening as well as a taster evening from Herts Catering. The Parents of Featherstone Wood also have two Halloween discos coming up on Thursday 25th October. Please note the different times for Early Years/KS1 and KS2

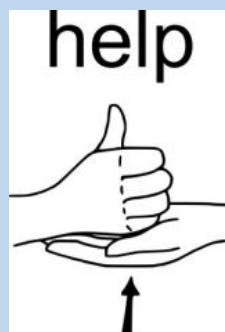

Next Friday is also our Half and Half day where you can wear pink or red tops for £1

Request from our Early Years Team—do you have any empty food packaging from Poland, Romania or any other countries that they could use in their home corner.

Also did you know that as a Reception parent you are welcome to stay and read on Wednesday mornings until 9.05am

Each week Mrs Smith, part of our Early Years team, will give us a new Makaton sign. This weeks sign is:
