Head Teacher – Louise Shuttleworth

25th October, 2018

Dear Parents/Carers,

The Governors of the school are critical friends who look at standards of teaching and pupil results. We are also responsible for health and safety and we are hearing that some parents are being rude and aggressive to teaching staff.

It is not acceptable for parents to shout or threaten staff and action will be taken if this continues.

Please talk through problems with the class teacher or the Head teacher. The bullying of children in school is not considered acceptable and the same applies to the bullying of our staff.

Road Safety

The road outside the school is very busy when dropping off and picking up. Please ensure that your children follow the correct procedure for crossing the road. There was a near miss the other morning when a child was nearly hit by a car.

Nursery Parent /Teacher Consultations

Nursery is holding Parent/Teacher Consultations on Tuesday, 6th November in the afternoon and Wednesday, 7th November from 1.00 p.m. to 5.30 p.m. This is a lovely opportunity for you to find out how well your child is progressing in school.

Letters have be sent home today in order for you to book your time slot.
